Sub:- Information Under RTI Act

Sir,

It is a matter of Pride that India has paid its <sup>Regular</sup> annual Budget funding to the United Nation in full capacity, while several countries who are member of United Nations could not paid its annual Budget funding to ~~the~~ this world body. Even U.S is defaulter.

The United Nations has an overall annual operating budget of several billion dollars, but right now, it is just trying to make sure its employees get paid.

Under the Right to Information Act, I would like to know detailed information, including sanction & receipts of these all payments. The information may be available with the protocol-II Division of the Ministry.

Hoping your response within stipulated period (30 days)

Yours sincerely,
