

High Commission of India Nairobi

Members of the publication committee of the Sikh Supreme Council of Kenya led by Chairman Davinder Singh Eari called on High Commissioner Suchitra Durai this morning to inform her about the revival of the quarterly publication of the Sikh community called 'Sikh Sandesh'. HC commended the community for its initiative and briefed them about the new developments in India-Kenya relations and invited the community to participate in important forthcoming events.

