55th ITEC Day celebrated in Brunei Darussalam

High Commission of India celebrated 55th ITEC Day on 11 October 2019 at India House. High Commissioner Shri Ajaneesh Kumar made a power point presentation highlighting the origins, evolution and the current broad outreach of the programme. Some of the Bruneian ITEC participants spoke briefly on their programmes, experiences during their visit to India.

The event was interspersed with cultural dance programmes performed by members of the Indian community. Over 100 guests attended the event including former ITEC scholars, participants in other training programmes, exchange students and Senior officials from the Government of Brunei Darussalam.

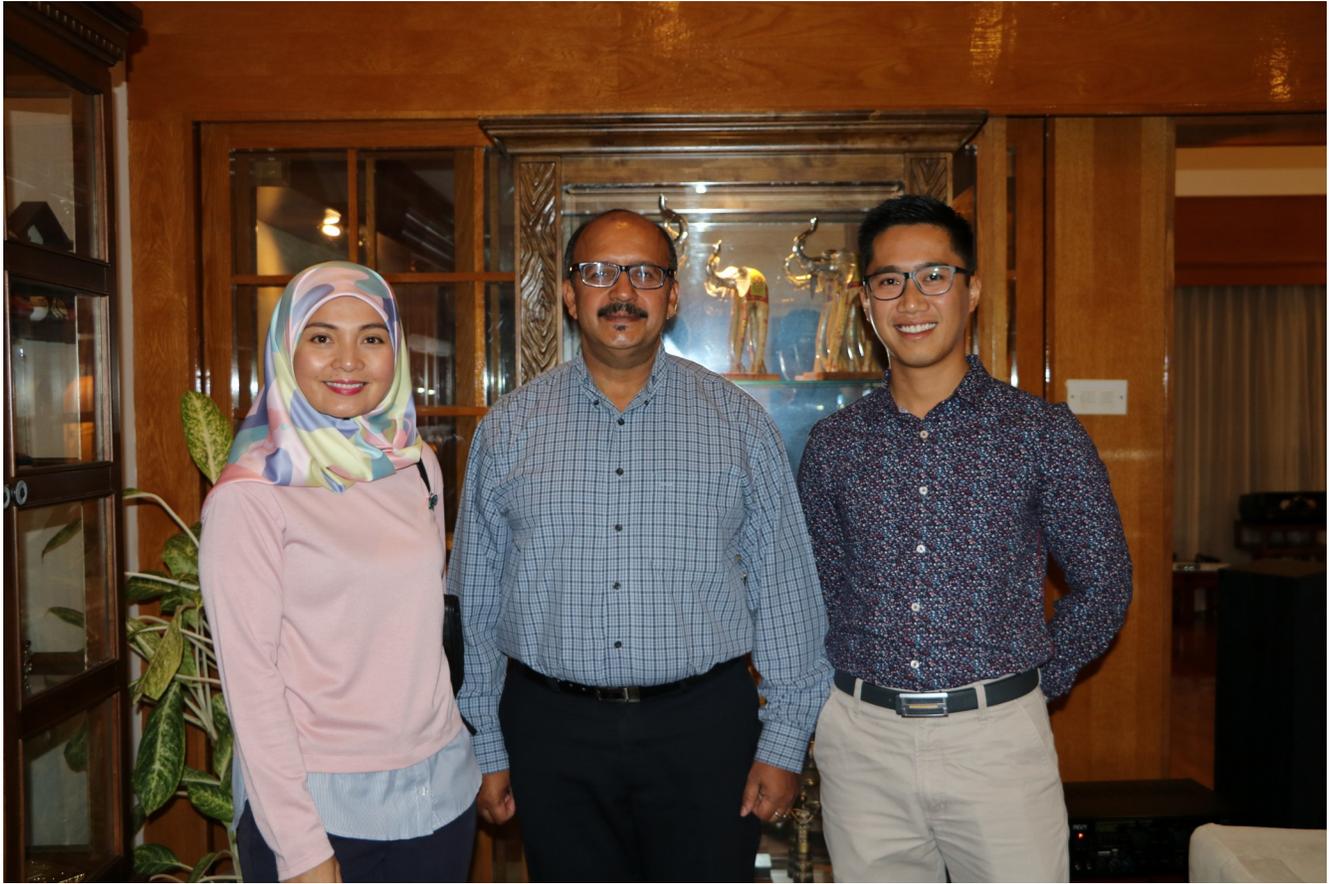

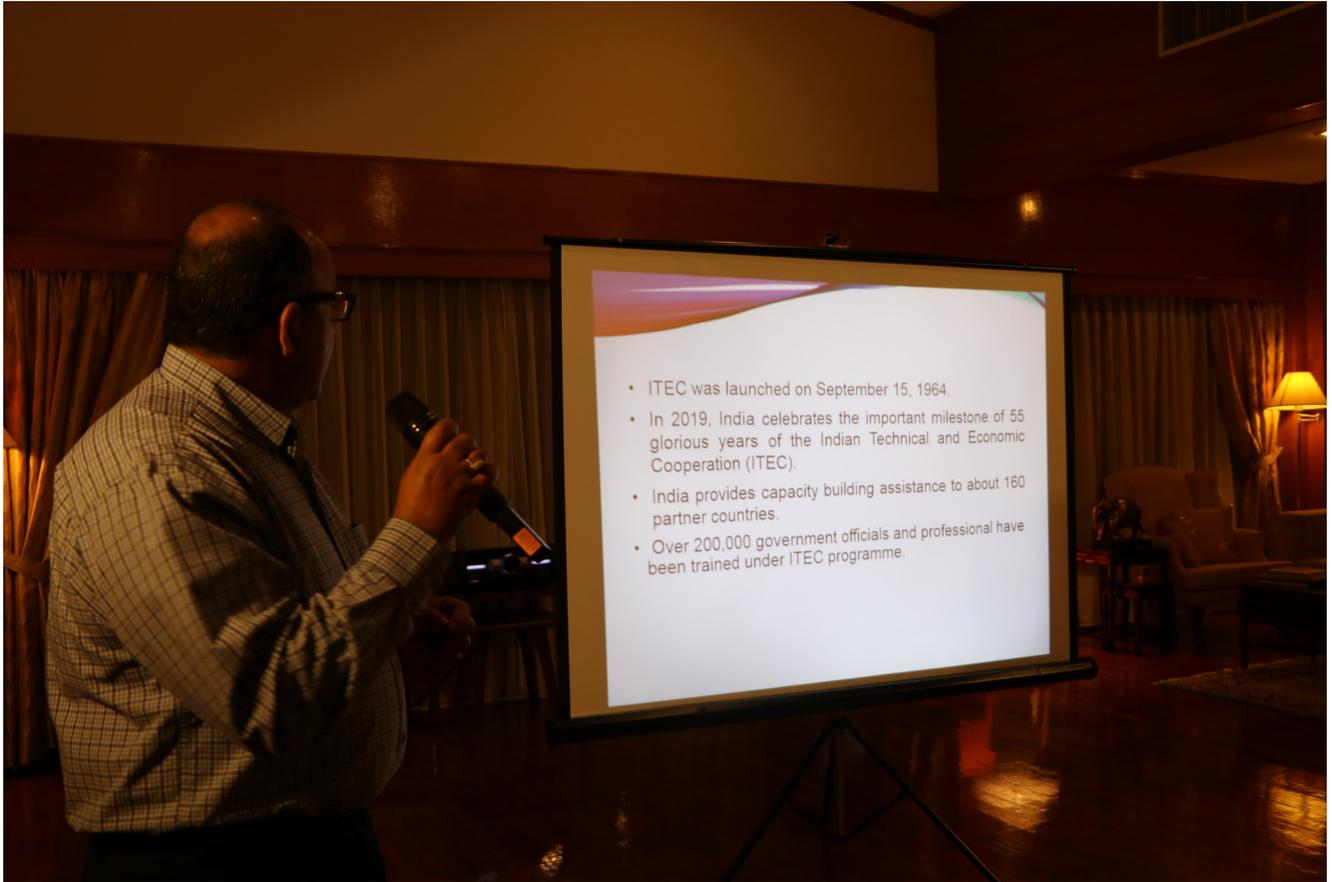

- ITEC was launched on September 15, 1964.
- In 2019, India celebrates the important milestone of 55 glorious years of the Indian Technical and Economic Cooperation (ITEC).
- India provides capacity building assistance to about 160 partner countries.
- Over 200,000 government officials and professional have been trained under ITEC programme.
