

High Commission of India
Nairobi

In the series of cultural events being organized as part of the ongoing Festival of India in Kenya (Urafiki Utsav), three performances of Alobo Naga and The Band (ANTB), a contemporary rock music band from the Nagaland State of India, were organized at Moi University, Eldoret (3 October), Goan Institute, Nairobi (4 October) and Kenyatta University, Nairobi (6 October) respectively.

Over 2000 people including Vice Chancellor, students and faculty of Moi University and members of Indian diaspora attended the event at Moi University Eldoret. In Kenyatta University, the performance of ANTB was organized as part of the Grand Finale of the Culture Festival Week 2016 of the Kenyatta University where over 5000 people including Vice Chancellor, students and faculty of Kenyatta University attended the event. High Commissioner was the Chief Guest at the Grand Finale. In the Goan Institute, Nairobi, over 250 music enthusiasts attended the event. The performances of ANTB were greatly appreciated by the audience in all the venues.

The next event in the series will be performances by a Gujarati Folk Dance troupe at Lamu (11 & 12 November) as a part of Lamu Cultural Festival and Mombasa (14 November). All performances are free and open to the public.

At Moi University, Eldoret (3 November)

At Goan Institute, Nairobi (4 November)

At Kenyatta University, Nairobi (6 November)

