13. Main items of India's imports from Oman during 2024: Energy and industrial inputs, underscoring the synergy of the two economies. The principal import items included crude petroleum oil and liquefied natural gas (LNG), which together account for a significant portion of the bilateral trade value. Other major imports comprised urea (including fertilizer grade), organic chemicals, anhydrous ammonia, and sulphur. India also imported earth and stone, plastering materials, lime, plastics in primary forms, airplanes and other aircraft, and iron ores and concentrates (non-agglomerated).

India-Oman Bilateral Investment

14. Oman-India Joint Investment Fund (OIJIF) is a 50-50 Joint Venture between the State Bank of India and the erstwhile State General Reserve Fund (which has now become Oman Investment Authority) of Oman. It was set up in July 2010 as a special purpose vehicle (SPV) to invest in India. OIJIF commenced its operations in 2011 with an initial seed capital of US$ 100 million which was fully invested across seven Indian companies from diversified sectors. In 2017, OIJIF invested its 2nd tranche of US$ 220 million in projects in India. After successful utilization of funds under tranche I and II, the 3rd OIJIF tranche worth US$ 300 million was announced during the visit of HM Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik to India in December 2023 which is under implementation.

15. Oman India Fertilizer Company (OMIFCO), located at Sur (Oman), is a US$ 969 million joint venture between Oman Oil Company (50% stake) and equal partners IFFCO (25% stake) and KRIBHCO (25% stake) of India. It started operations in January 2006.

16. Several Indian firms have set up manufacturing units in Oman as joint ventures or in Special Economic Zones in various sectors like green hydrogen, green ammonia, green steel, construction and engineering, waste management, logistics, manufacturing, finance and capital, software solutions, communications, oil and gas etc.

Cultural Cooperation:

17. India and Oman share a close cultural bond rooted in millennia-old people-to-people exchanges and the presence of a substantial Indian community in Oman. A notable event was the announcement of the Gandhi Peace Prize for 2019, awarded to the Late HM Sultan Qaboos in March 2021, fostering immense goodwill for India.

18. Indian Embassy, in association with the National Archives of India (NAI), conducted a first of its kind special digitization and oral history project, titled 'The Oman Collection – Archival Heritage of the Indian Community in Oman' from 19 to 27 May 2024. Under this project, digitization of over 7,000 historical records of 32 old Indian diaspora families living in Oman for more than 250 years was done. These documents included personal diaries, account books, trade invoices, passports, letters, etc. These documents, dating from 1838 to early 20th century, were in English, Arabic, Gujarati and Hindi.

19. Embassy organized the landmark 'Mandvi to Muscat' lecture series for 8 months, starting in October 2023 and concluding in May 2024. The lecture series was inaugurated by then Hon'ble Minister of State for External Affairs of India Shri V. Muraleedharan on October 19, 2023. The primary objective of this lecture series was to rekindle awareness about the story and history of the Indian community in Oman and its remarkable contributions in strengthening India-Oman ties. The lecture series featured distinguished academics, historians, and anthropologists from Oman, India, the US, and the UAE, offering rich insights into the historical connections between India and Oman.

Indian Community in Oman:

20. Oman hosts a sizeable Indian community totalling approximately 676,781 (Males: 515,917; Females: 160,864) as on 25 August 2025, according to the Govt. of Oman. 519,609 Indian nationals hold work visas, according to National Centre for Statistics and Information (NCSI) data from October 2025. Some Indian families have established roots in Oman for more than 150-200 years. As of November 2025, 2052 individuals of Indian origin possess Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) cards. Thousands of Indians work as doctors, engineers, chartered accountants, teachers, lecturers, nurses, managers, etc. The role played by the Indian expatriate community in building Oman is often acknowledged by Omani Government. 22 Indian schools are offering a curriculum catering to the educational needs of more than 48000 students.

21. Indian community in Oman is organized under Indian Social clubs in Muscat, Salalah, Sohar, and Sur. These clubs have several sub-groups called Linguistic Wings which cater to their members' cultural and social needs.

22. The Hindu merchant community has two temples, one over a century old, and cremation grounds. Churches have been permitted, and a Gurudwara has been there for over two decades, along with at least two other temporary structures used as Gurudwaras. Indian Embassy receives good support from local authorities in delivering services aimed at the welfare of the Indian community in Oman.

23. Outstanding contributions of Indians and People of Indian Origin in Oman to the strengthening of our bilateral relations have been recognized by the Government of India through Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Awards. The Pravasi Bharatiya Samman Awardees from Oman are: Shri Kanaksi Khimji (2003), Dr. P. Mohamed Ali (2004), P.N.C. Menon (2009), S.K.
